

The state of Texas is currently not requiring a VOE for a driver license while schools are closed due to COVID-19. There is no need to request this from the school at this time.